
Making Presentations That Stick

A guide by Chip Heath & Dan Heath

Selling your idea

Created in partnership with Chip and Dan Heath, authors of the bestselling book Made To Stick, this template advises users on how to build and deliver a memorable presentation of a new product, service, or idea.

1. Intro

Choose one approach to grab the audience's attention right from the start: unexpected, emotional, or simple.

- Unexpected
Highlight what's new, unusual, or surprising.
- Emotional
Give people a reason to care.
- Simple
Provide a simple unifying message for what is to come

How many languages do you need to know to communicate with the rest of the world?

Tip

In this example, we're leading off with something unexpected.

While the audience is trying to come up with a number, we'll surprise them with the next slide.

Just one! Your own.

(With a little help from your smart phone)

Tip

Remember. If something sounds like common sense, people will ignore it.

Highlight what is unexpected about your topic.

The Google Translate app
can repeat anything you say in up to NINETY
LANGUAGES from German and Japanese to
Czech and Zulu

Tip

Don't wait till the end of the presentation to give the bottom line.

Reveal your product or idea (in this case a translation app) up front.

2. Examples

By the end of this section, your audience should be able to visualize:

→ What

What is the pain you cure with your solution?

→ Who

Show them a specific person who would benefit from your solution.

Tip

Tell the audience about the problem through a story, ideally a person.

Meet Alberto.

He recently moved from Spain to a small town in Northern Ireland.

He loved soccer, but feared he had no way to talk to a coach or teammates.

Meet Marcos.

He recently opened a camera shop near the Louvre in Paris.

Visitors to his store, mostly tourists, speak many different languages making anything beyond a simple transaction a challenge.

Story for illustration purposes only

Tip

If one example isn't sufficient to help people understand the breadth of your idea, pick a couple of examples.

A hand holding a smartphone against a blurred red background. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

A translation barrier left Alberto feeling lonely and hurt Marco's business.

Tip

Ideally, speak of people in very different situations, but where each could benefit from your solution.
